

James Markert

James is a graduate of University of Louisville. He is a USPTA P-1 certified tennis professional. James spent 9 years teaching at Mockingbird Valley Tennis Club before moving to Louisville Tennis Club in 2003. He has worked with players from the beginning to national level, and coached a number of players to high state, sectional and national rankings. Several of his students have gone on to play Division I tennis, and two have gone on to play in the Big Ten Conference.