

John Meade

John played his first tennis tournament at the age of eight. After a successful junior career and a state doubles championship at Trinity High School, he went on to play for the University of Louisville. There John raised his game to a new level capturing a singles title and perfecting his doubles before being sidelined early by an injury. John then became a certified USPTA professional teacher and an official NTRP verifier in 1990. He is a USTA Open Sectional Team champion and has coached many RCRL and USTA teams to championship wins. John is a member of the Prince Advisory Staff and specializes in stroke development and doubles strategy.
