

Todd Hammonds

Todd is a native of Lexington, Kentucky with over 20 years of teaching experience. While in St. Louis, Missouri, Todd served 9 years as Senior Pro at Creve Coeur Racquet Club (ranked in Tennis Magazines' Top 100 tennis facilities in the U.S.), where he co-directed all junior and adult programs. Additionally, Todd has coached and developed many top 100 nationally ranked players, some of which played professionally, and has helped many players achieve the goal of playing college tennis. He also co-founded the Miller Tennis Academy which has produced many nationally ranked players. While competing, Todd played collegiate tennis at Eastern Kentucky University and competed in ATP Tour satellite events. He also won several St. Louis singles and doubles titles, was ranked #2 in singles and #1 in doubles in the Missouri Valley Section, and was employed as a hitting partner for Jimmy Connors.